

Maria earned a GED and is studying to be a teacher. Through the family literacy program, she learned how to help her children succeed in school, too.

How can Kentucky Adult Education help employers?

Kentucky Adult Education funds workforce education to meet the needs of business and industry:

- Workplace essential skills education using SkillMobiles, state-of-the-art mobile computer labs that feature online curricula at your worksite and at your convenience
- Grants for workforce education
- Instruction for the Kentucky Employability Certificate, confirming to employers that an individual possesses basic skills that jobs require

To find out about workforce education and to locate the Kentucky Adult Education Workforce Associate for your area, click on www.kyae.ky.gov/employers.

Leah left high school due to social pressures. After working at several low-wage jobs, she enrolled in community college and then medical school. She's now a doctor.

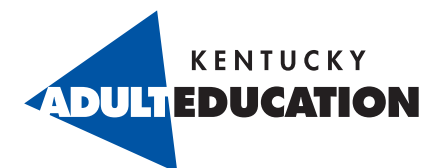

To find an adult education center in your county, call 1-800-928-7323 or visit www.kyae.ky.gov.

Printed with federal funds
Equal education and employment opportunities M/F/D

Learning for Life

Kentucky Adult Education has always been about the future – a fact that was never more true in Kentucky than now. For all Kentuckians to prosper, every citizen must be prepared to function well in the workforce, the community and the home.

The bottom line is simple. If Kentuckians get a good education:

- They can compete for good jobs.
- They can support their families.
- Their children are more likely to succeed in school and beyond.
- The Commonwealth can make a compelling case for companies opening or expanding their businesses in Kentucky.

Robert lost out on good jobs because he didn't finish high school. After earning a GED, employment doors opened for him.

At age 51, James proved himself by getting his GED. He studied through the Internet, at his own pace, on his own time, from his own home.

How can Kentucky Adult Education help adults?

Adult education centers offer:

- GED instruction
- Help with math, English and reading for eligible high school and GED graduates who want to go to college and/or get a better job
- Family literacy services
- Help with learning to read
- English classes for immigrants

All services are free and convenient.

You can attend classes at an adult education center in your county or study online in the comfort of your own home.

To find out about services in your county or how to study from home, call toll-free 1-800-928-7323 or click on www.kyae.ky.gov.

GED: Prove Yourself

Angel worked at a steel mill for 15 years. When it closed, she couldn't find a job without a diploma. She earned a GED and enrolled in nursing school.

Eric joined the U.S. Navy and proved himself in war. To prove himself at home, he earned his GED and joined the police force.

